SUPPLEMENT TO

1. The Hungarian Government has always vetoed the proposals of Israeli officials in Budapest to enlist official Hungarian interest in flying emigres to Israel, despite the fact that there has been a considerable interest on the part of Moszovlet to engage in these flights.
2. Haganah is rumored to be recruiting Air Force personnel in Hungary through a Soviet Lieutenant Colonel using the alias of Mirza.
3. [REDACTED] as offered a position as an Israeli pilot by a former pupil of Laszlo Stark, who joined the Israeli Air Force in June 1948 as a transport pilot. Stark was questioned first by Mirza on flight problems, icing conditions, and hyperbolic navigation. He was then sent to Prague where he reported to a man named Robin. Stark later wrote to [REDACTED] telling him to contact Joseph Carnegie (alias Horngrad) at 10 Volsilska street in Prague if he is interested in a job with the Israeli Air Force.
4. Stark, who is using the alias of Jaakov Baruch, flies a C-46, and lands frequently at the Uherske-Hradiste field near Prague, and at Geneva, Sofia and Paris, and Ajaccio (Corsica). Stark has flown arms of Soviet and American origin from Paris and Ajaccio to Israel. The aircraft was landed at Sofia where it took on fuel and proceeded on its way. The ownership, nationality, routes and markings are not known to [REDACTED] 25X1A6a
5. Other Haganah officials in Budapest are Dr. Stein, who lives on Vecsey utca 3/1; Avry Kopstein, same address; Ben Zion (an alias) in the AJDC office. These men are allegedly members of the Communist Party.
